LIFE INSURANCE BY STATES.

The following tables show the business transacted in 1907 in the States named by the various life insurance companies. While not attempting to analyze the business in individual States, the tables exhibit the amount of policies written, the premiums and losses of each company, and the amount of insurance in force at the beginning and close of the year. It is simply an exhibit of the volume of business in the various States and Territories, and conveys an approximate idea of the total business. A few States do not require this information, and in such cases we have applied to the companies for particulars. We give all the particulars we could glean from the resources at our command.

LEGISLATION—

Louisiana.—On July 3 the Governor signed Senate Bill 71, by Mr. Wimberly, requiring fire, life, accident and other insurance companies, other than surety and fidelity and fraternal societies, to give a bond payable to the State Treasurer conditioned for the prompt payment of claims arising in this State.

Massachusetts.—The Governor has signed the bill which empowers any domestic accident insurance company, and any such foreign company properly admitted to the commonwealth, and having a capital of not less than $300,000, to insure against the breakage of plate glass, whether local or in transit.

Other enactments touching upon life or casualty insurance, are as follows:

Appropriation not exceeding $10,000 for salaries and expenses in connection with the establishment of life insurance departments by savings banks; an act relative to mutual insurance companies transacting an employers' liability business; an act establishing a maximum penalty of a $300 fine in case a paid officer of a domestic mutual insurance company is shown to have procured proxies in violation of law; an act providing that agents' licenses or renewals thereof expire on the 30th day of June following their issue, with provision for renewal on or before the first of July following their issue; an act fixing the surrender charge of a savings bank life insurance policy at not over 1 per cent of the face of the policy; an act amending Section 32 of Chapter 576 of the laws of 1907 by adding thereto the privilege of insuring against property damage caused by automobiles; an act permitting the voluntary exchange of policies issued by domestic life insurance companies prior to January 1, 1908, for a different kind complying with the provisions of law applicable to the original policies, and with dates and amounts the same; an act authorizing certain fraternal beneficiary associations to make contracts of reinsurance and transfer; an act regarding the qualification of officers of insurance companies, adding to those that must annually qualify, assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers; requiring also that either the president or the vice-president preside at directors' meetings, or in their absence a temporary president must be chosen; an act authorizing assistant secretaries of domestic insurance companies to sign policies; an act extending the prohibition of rebate giving to companies other than life, marine excepted.

New Mexico.—The Department of Insurance of New Mexico, after having investigated the matter of advisory board contracts, special income contracts and stock agency schemes, decided to require from all insurance companies which make application for license for the year 1908, a certificate signed by the president and secretary of the company to the effect that the company pledges itself to refrain from writing any advisory board contracts, special income contracts or to engage in any stock schemes of any character, or to offer any special inducements in the sale of life insurance in this territory and no company which does not furnish such certificate will have its license renewed for the year 1908. After such license has been granted, if it shall be discovered that the company has engaged in that kind of business, such fact, when established, will be sufficient ground for the cancelling of the company's license to do business in this Territory.

New York.—The Governor signed the bill of Senator Tully, amending section 60 of the insurance law, in relation to estimates and misrepresentations. Its provisions follow:

Section 60—Estimates and misrepresentations prohibited.—No life insurance corporation doing business in this State, and no officer, director or agent thereof shall issue or circulate, or cause or permit to be issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular or statement of any sort, misrepresenting the terms of any policy issued by it or the benefits or advantages promised thereby, or the dividends or share of surplus to be received thereon, or shall use any name or title of any policy or class of policies misrepresenting the true nature thereof. Nor shall any such corporation or agent thereof make any misrepresentation to any person insured in another company for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce such person to lapse, forfeit, or surrender his said insurance. Any violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor, and it shall be the duty of the Superintendent of Insurance to revoke the license of the corporation or agent so offending.

Virginia.—On July 15, the law passed by the last Legislature, requiring every life insurance solicitor in that State to register and pay a fee of $1, went into effect. Each company furnishes the Insurance Department with a full list of its agents and the agents are to register and pay their fee or be subject to a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100.

Dixie Life, Little Rock, Ark., absorbed by Great American Life, St. Louis.

Great Western Life, Kansas City.—Judge John C. Pollock, in the Federal Court at Chicago, has ordered that the property of the company be disposed of and that the policies be reinsured. When a receiver was appointed for the company last May it was thought that its affairs could be adjusted. The court reports, however, that nothing can be done toward this end, hence the order for reinsurance.

OFFICIAL LIFE INSURANCE REPORTS

Being a Series of Comparative Exhibits for Life Policyholders, showing the Business and Financial Standing of all the Life Insurance Companies of the United States. For two years ending Jan. 1, 1908.

COMPILED FROM OFFICIAL REPORTS

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

EXHIBIT I. In addition to the companies named in this Exhibit, the following companies carry small amounts of outstanding insurance on their books, but write no new business: Girard Life Annuity and Trust, Philadelphia; New York Life and Trust, New York; Pennsylvania Company for Insurance on Lives, Philadelphia.

Since July 1, 1907, the following level-premium companies have commenced operations: American National, Tacoma, Wash.; Cleveland Life, Cleveland, O.; Columbus Mutual, Columbus, O.; Continental, Wilmington, Del.; Eastern, New York; First National, Tacoma, Wash.; Great Southern, Birmingham, Ala.; Independent, Nashville, Tenn.; Iowa Life, Waterloo, Ia.; Jefferson Standard, Raleigh, N. C.; Michigan State, Detroit; Northern Assurance, Detroit; Northwestern Life, Aberdeen, S. D.; Pioneer, Fargo, N. D.; Protective, Birmingham, Ala.; Puritan, Providence, R. I.; Rome Life, Rome, Ga.; St. Louis National, St. Louis; Western Mutual, Council Bluffs, Ia.; The Empire Life of Atlanta; Peoples Life of Frankfort, Ind.; and Western Reserve of Muncie, Ind., have reorganized under level premium laws. The Great Western Life of Kansas City was placed in the hands of receivers in July, 1908.

The following foreign life companies are operating in the United States: Canada Life, Toronto, Ont.; Manufacturers Life, Toronto, Ont.; North American, Toronto, Ont.; Sun, Montreal; Life, Quebec; Prussian Life of Berlin (transacting reinsurance business only). The Nederland Life of Holland has ceased transacting new business, but is carrying its existing policies to maturity.

EXHIBIT III. The Item of Assets Not Admitted consists of assets whose value cannot be readily ascertained by the insurance commissioners, and are therefore disqualified, although they may be perfectly good investments. Agents' balances, bills receivable, furniture, fixtures and safes, advances to agents and commuted commissions are included in this item. The departments also deduct the expense loading of the deferred and unpaid premiums. These amounts are also included in this column.

EXHIBIT IX. Many companies take notes in part payment of premiums, upon which interest is paid and others loan a part of the policy reserve to their policyholders. The amounts of such notes and loans are, of course, deducted in the final settlement of the policies. The following shows the total of such notes and loans for the year 1906:

EXHIBIT XII. The Item of All Other Assets is made up chiefly of interest and rents due and accrued.

EXHIBIT XVI. Many companies for a number of years transacted a large part of their business on plans involving the deferment of dividends for periods of ten, fifteen or twenty years. This is generally known as the tontine principle, and some departments require companies transacting this class of business to report the surplus specially reserved for it. This table also shows the surplus apportioned by the companies for future distribution and reported as liabilities.

EXHIBIT XVIII. The net assets are obtained by deducting from the admitted assets all indebtedness outside the amount set apart as the reinsurance reserve. Capital stock is also deducted.

EXHIBIT XIX. The capital stock has been deducted from the assets in order to eliminate the heavy ratios in favor of new companies.

EXHIBIT XX. This table indicates the relative standing of the various companies in regard to the age of their policyholders, for as the policies increase in age the amount of reserve held necessarily increases. It should not be used as a standard of strength.

EXHIBIT XXII. The Not Admitted items of assets added to the Admitted Assets and Surplus give the Gross Assets and Surplus of this table.

EXHIBITS XLII-XLVI. There is much uncertainty as to what is the really true basis for comparing expenses. Some companies claim that one ratio is the best, because it suits them, while others prefer an entirely different ratio. In these exhibits some of the chief methods are given.

EXHIBIT XLVII. The amount of interest earnings given here does not include the items of profit and loss, but only the actual interest and rental receipts of the year.

EXHIBIT LV. In the case of young companies having capital stock, the Ratio of Total Benefits to Premium Receipts naturally is rather high. The date of commencing business and the amount of capital stock should be considered in this connection. The industrial companies being of necessity conducted at a high rate of expense show a comparatively low ratio.

London Lloyds Underwriters

We have exclusive contracts with many of the members of this, the greatest underwriting association in the world, by which we are able to immediately cover large amounts on desirable risks irrespective of other amounts on the same properties obtained through other channels. For more than twenty-five years we have conducted this department of business with European and American companies and our facilities are unequalled. There never is trouble, vexation, or delay in the adjustment of losses when forms have been drawn and risks have been placed by us.

The Equitable

Life Assurance Society of the United States, 120 Broadway, New York, invites correspondence with men who have had experience in canvassing for life insurance, or with those who are without experience, but whose standing, education, and capacity fit them for an occupation which demands integrity, intelligence, tact, energy and diligence, but not necessarily preliminary technical knowledge.

All companies organized under the laws of the State of New York are now offering life insurance on equal terms, under standard forms of policy prescribed by law.

Public attention will then be centered on essentials as distinguished from non-essentials: 1. Financial strength; 2. Skilful, economical and conservative administration; 3. Prompt and liberal dealing. Hereafter the agent who represents the best company will enjoy the greatest advantage.

Life insurance is a necessity. It furnishes, to professional and business men with income but without capital, the only means of adequately providing for those dependent on them.

There has never been a time when there has been greater need for life insurance than now, and there has never been a time when the public has been in a position to know more certainly that trustworthy life insurance can be obtained.

CALCULATING MACHINES.

TATE'S ARITHMOMETER.

This machine is generally regarded as being the most complete and practical one yet produced. It is thoroughly reliable, stands the hardest kind of work without derangement, and is so well made as to practically never require repairs. The Tate Arithmometer is in use by actuaries and mathematicians in all parts of the world and is universally commended by them after long and severe tests. This instrument is made in two sizes, a cut of the 16-figure product machine being shown herewith.

Among the many testimonials received showing the efficiency of the Arithmometer, we produce one of the latest from Mr. Henry D. Smidt, Under Colonial Secretary at Cape Town:

"I wish to state that the Arithmometer supplied this department in 1890 has proved to be wholly satisfactory. I venture to say that it has been in more constant use and has done more work than any instrument used for a like period. It has been in constant use for all statistical, actuarial and other Government purposes, and I have never known it to fail in a single instance to the slightest extent. It has remained in perfect adjustment and is still in as perfect condition as it was when first received here."

THE SAXONIA AND UNITAS RECKONING MACHINES.

The "Saxonia Reckoning Machine" embraces many advantages over any other calculating machine, as it contains various improvements the outgrowth of long experience and simplified methods of operation. The mechanism of the machine cannot get out of order and is covered by a three years' guarantee. The "Saxonia" is especially adapted to use in insurance offices where intricate calculations are required daily; also in manufacturing plants, in railroad auditing offices and department stores.

Prices of the "SAXONIA"

The "SAXONIA"—Size "A," showing the completed multiplication 26.75 x 254 0 = 679 450. Time two seconds.

Size A—Capacity 12 figures in product and 7 in quotient,	-	-	-	$250.00
Size B—Capacity 16 figures in product and 9 in quotient,	-	-	-	$300.00
Size C—Capacity 20 figures in product and 11 in quotient,	-	-	-	$375.00

We recommend for the use of insurance companies Size B, price $300.00

Unitas Reckoning Machine, with double slide, model 1907, simple multiplication, 24,602 x 5,223 = 128,496,246. Time six seconds.

The "Unitas" is a new compound instrument, and is the only machine that has successfully overcome the chief disadvantage of all reckoning machines, by reason of the fact that it is not only a most perfect multiplying and dividing machine, but through a second figure slide is an adding and accumulating machine as well; solving problems in one single operation where other machines require three and four operations.

Prices of the "UNITAS"

Size B—Capacity, 8 x 7 x 12 x 12 figures,	-	$425.00
Size D—Capacity, 10 x 9 x 16 x 16 figures,	-	$500.00
Size F—Capacity, 12 x 11 x 20 x 20 figures,	-	$575.00

Send for circular giving full description of above machines.

ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS

SPECIALY QUALIFIED TO HANDLE INSURANCE CASES.

It is a well-known fact that few lawyers are competent to properly handle an insurance case without a special knowledge of the business, however skillful they may be as general practitioners. We have requested from a large number of well-known underwriters the names of attorneys whom they have found to be competent and satisfactory in the conduct of cases placed in their charge. The following list is made up of the names thus voluntarily given, together with a few others who have given special attention to insurance law

The Spectator:

AN AMERICAN REVIEW OF INSURANCE.PUBLISHED WEEKLY.Subscription Price, $4.00 per Annum.

THE SPECTATOR is a live and progressive insurance journal, noted for its pungent and fearless discussion of all matters pertaining to the vast subject of insurance in every branch. In the many years of its existence it has built up a reputation for fair and honest treatment of insurance matters that has made it invaluable to insurance men of every class, whether they be

MANAGERS OF COMPANIES OR AGENTS IN THE FIELD.

It contains the latest and freshest insurance news from every quarter, bright and sparkling correspondence from the principal insurance centres of the country, comments on current insurance events of the day, and able discussions on the principles of Life, Fire, Accident and Miscellaneous Insurance.

A most valuable feature of THE SPECTATOR is the presentation from time to time of carefully prepared and voluminous of the business of Life, Fire and Miscellaneous Insurance, usually in a comparative form, showing the business transactions and detailed experience of all companies for a series of years. These statistics are compiled by experts having no personal interest to serve, but are prepared solely for the purpose of analyzing the subject.

THE MOST EMINENT WRITERS

on Insurance in its various forms are contributors to its columns, and the aim of its proprietors is to present the science of the insurance systems in vogue without prejudice to any and in fairness to all. It is in this spirit that Fire, Life, Industrial, Accident and Employers' Liability, Natural Premium Life and Miscellaneous Insurance Companies, Associations and Societies are treated without fear or favor. It also gives the current news from different insurance centres each week, and each number is that are of interest to the profession at large. In short, it is the ambition of its proprietors to make THE SPECTATOR an invaluable journal to every person identified with the insurance interest in any capacity, and its unprecedented success is evidence that their efforts are appreciated.

Any business man entering the insurance profession as manager, agent or broker should address The Spectator Company for information regarding the various treatises and other instructive publications printed in the interest of the particular branches of insurance. Managers and general agents should see that their sub-agents are supplied with the various publications issued by it in behalf of insurance. The public interested in insurance from a fire, life or casualty standpoint should secure copies of the works of reference, containing reports on insurance companies, issued by it.

A complete Catalogue of insurance works will be sent to members of the insurance fraternity, or to any person, on receipt of five cents to cover postage.

Attention is called to the condensed Catalogue of the insurance works of The Spectator Company presented on other pages of this issue.

PREMIUMS.

READY RECKONER FOR EARNED AND UNEARNED PREMIUMS. A Series of Tables designed for the Speedy Calculation of the Sums earned and unearned on Policies of Insurance; by the late WILLIAM ELLSWORTH, Jr., formerly of the Continental Fire Insurance Company.

This new and important work is designed to furnish representatives of Fire Insurance Companies the means for instantaneously computing earned and unearned premiums. The method is the simplest yet devised, and can be comprehended by any one who is competent to understand the easiest rules of arithmetic. The tables prepared furnish a ready-made answer to all the problems relating to premiums that underwriters are required to solve. WM. ELLSWORTH, Jr., author of the Ready Reckoner, was a well known mathematician, who was long connected with the Continental and Niagara fire insurance companies, and later with the Caledonian Insurance Company. THE READY RECKONER is the result of his daily experience, and is designed to simplify the calculations required of every underwriter. 12mo., 80 pp. Printed on fine paper and substantially bound in half leather.

Clement on Fire Insurance

Volume I—As a Valid Contract. Volume II—As a Void Contract.

By George A. Clement, of the New York Bar, Editor of Fire Insurance Digest, Probate Reports Annotated, and the New York Annotated Code of Civil Procedure.

This work, the second volume of which has just been issued, is of exceptional value to all who are in any way interested in loss claims, including judges, lawyers, claimants, insurance company officers, managers, adjusters and agents.

VOLUME I, relating to the fire insurance policy as a valid contract in event of fire, and as affected by construction and waiver, estoppel and adjustment of claims thereunder, comprises 12 chapters and numerous sub-titles. The chapter titles are: I.—Duty of the Insured at the Time of Fire and Subsequent Thereto II.—Parties to the Fire Insurance Contract and to the Adjustment of the Loss. III.—Ascertainment of the Loss or Damage. IV.—Statement or Proof of Loss and Other Requirements or Conditions Precedent to Loss Becoming Due and Payable—Iron Safe Clause—Fraud. V.—The Options of the Insurance Company. VI.—Apportionment of the Loss. VII.—Payment of the Loss. VIII.—Subrogation. IX.—Limitation as to Suit or Action on Policy. X.—Waiver of the Terms and Condition of Policy—Estoppel. XI.—Construction and Interpretation of the Fire Insurance Contract. XII.—Standard Forms of Fire Insurance Contract, and Riders or Clauses in General or Occasional Use.

VOLUME II, deals with the policy as a void contract in the event of fire, and its scope may be gathered from the chapter titles here given: I.—Concealment. II.—Misrepresentation. III.—Warranty. IV.—Other Insurance. V.—Relating to Interest or Title. VI.—Relating to Use or Occupation. VII.—Miscellaneous Provisions and Other Subjects. VIII.—Statutory Provisions.

Those who have heretofore purchased the first volume should now avail themselves of the opportunity to complete the work by securing volume two.

"Clement on Fire Insurance" is not a digest nor a treatise, but is of more practical value than either, as it reduces the various subjects to a system of rules; it is an innovation as regards arrangement and treatment, and it presents impartially the minds of the courts as they are to-day upon the various subjects in a clear, concise, logical and comprehensive manner. In brief, it is one of the most valuable and practical fire insurance law books which has ever been published.
